YOUNG NFL TALENT HEADS TO EUROPE; COLLEGE STARS AMONG ALLOCATED QUARTERBACKS

The countdown to the 2007 NFL Europa League season – the 15th in league history – has begun with the assignment and drafting of NFL allocated players that was conducted today.

More than 100 young prospects were assigned by the NFLEL office, while a further group of young NFL quarterbacks was drafted by the six NFL Europa head coaches. The assignment of kickers and punters during training camp in the Tampa Bay area early next month will enlarge the number of NFL allocated players to 150.

Nine NFL quarterbacks – including college stars DREW OLSON of the Baltimore Ravens and OMAR JACOBS of the Kansas City Chiefs – were directly allocated to NFL Europa clubs, along with nine free-agent passers. Included in the free-agent group was CODY PICKETT, who was a seventh-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers in 2004 and went on to start two games for the team in 2005.

Quarterbacks assigned to NFL Europa League teams:

Olson will quarterback the Amsterdam Admirals during the 2007 NFL Europa season. He was one of college football's most prolific passers during his time at UCLA, ranking second on the school's all-time charts after throwing for 8,532 yards and 67 touchdowns. Free agents COREY BRAMLET and MATT BOHNET complete the Admirals quarterback lineup heading into training camp.

Jacobs, who will be a member of the Berlin Thunder this season, was a Heisman Trophy contender during his three years at Bowling Green, where he threw for 6,938 yards, 71 touchdowns and only 11 interceptions. He was a fifth-round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2006 and has practice squad experience with the Steelers and the Philadelphia Eagles.

Seattle Seahawks quarterback TRAVIS LULAY and free agent WALTER WASHINGTON will compete for playing time under center for the Thunder.

The defending World Bowl-champion Frankfurt Galaxy welcome back a fan favorite in J.T. O'SULLIVAN of the Chicago Bears, who led the club to a World Bowl berth in 2004. O'Sullivan has NFL experience with New Orleans, Green Bay, New England and Minnesota. During his last tenure in Europe he threw for 1,527 yards and 10 touchdowns en route to a 91.9 passer rating. He is joined in Frankfurt by strong-armed Tampa Bay Buccaneers quarterback BRUCE EUGENE and free-agent KEVIN EAKIN, who threw for 1,299 yards and 11 touchdowns with the Galaxy in 2005.

Houston Texans 2006 practice squad member QUINTON PORTER will be out to make the starting quarterback's job his own in Cologne, but will face competition from free agents ERIK MEYER and PAUL PINEGAR. The Hamburg Sea Devils will welcome back a familiar face when Washington Redskins-allocated quarterback CASEY BRAMLET returns to the team he led in 2005, throwing for 1,463 yards and seven touchdowns. He will be joined by MIKE MC GANN of the Indianapolis Colts and free agent ROD RUTHERFORD, who was a record-setting passer at the University of Pittsburgh.

The Rhein Fire welcomes San Diego Chargers-allocated quarterback BRETT ELLIOTT to their team, along with a high-profile free-agent passer in Pickett. Free agent BRIAN WROBEL, who saw action as a backup for the Berlin Thunder in 2006, completes the group.

Two famous sons will occupy running-back positions in NFL Europa this spring. JOHN DAVID WASHINGTON of the St. Louis Rams (Hamburg) is the son of Academy Award-winning actor DENZEL WASHINGTON, while Chicago Bears-allocated (Rhein) rusher GERALD RIGGS, JR. is the son of former Atlanta Falcons Pro Bowl running back GERALD RIGGS.

Cologne's ground attack will be led by a man who played in seven regular season games for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2006 in DERRICK ROSS, while CHRIS BARCLAY, who saw regular-season action for the Cleveland Browns, will suit up for the Berlin Thunder. Former Virginia Tech star and 2006 Pittsburgh Steelers practice squad member CEDRIC HUMES will be in the backfield for Amsterdam.

A total of 32 NFL players heading to Europe were previously selected in the NFL Draft, including Denver Broncos tight end TEYO JOHNSON, who was a second-round choice of the Oakland Raiders in 2003. Johnson, who started in nine of his 30 appearances in the NFL, has caught 26 passes for 288 yards and three touchdowns. He will play for the Hamburg Sea Devils.

"The NFL teams have once again provided us with a pool of players loaded with talent," said NFLEL Director of Football Operations MIKE CHAN. "Each of these players is eager for the opportunity to play and compete for a championship in Europe. This is another clear example of the support and interest from NFL teams.

"The pool of players include some that have seen extensive time in the NFL mixed with some exciting young players. The 2007 season is already shaping up to be another success. We expect these players to perform at their highest level for our coaches and our fans."

Guard ROB HUNT of the Kansas City Chiefs was the first overall pick in the NFL Allocated Player Draft after being chosen by the Berlin Thunder. Hunt was a fifth-round draft choice of the Indianapolis Colts in 2005 and has practice squad experience with the Denver Broncos. He played in NFL Europa in 2006 as a member of the Rhein Fire.

Hamburg used its first selection to take Tennessee Titans defensive end NATHANIEL ADIBI, who has practice squad experience with Miami and Jacksonville after being selected in the fifth round of the 2004 draft by Pittsburgh. Cologne took Dallas Cowboys linebacker JOHN SALDI, while the Rhein Fire chose San Francisco 49ers receiver C.J. BREWER. Amsterdam selected Green Bay guard ADAM STENAVICH before Frankfurt closed out the first round by taking San Francisco 49ers safety VICKIEL VAUGHN, who was a seventh-round draft choice in 2006.
