NFL POSTSEASON CREDENTIAL APPLICATION PROCEDURES

AFC AND NFC DIVISIONAL GAMES

(Saturday and Sunday, January 14-15): Credential requests for the AFC and NFC Divisional Playoff Games should be made to the public relations director of the home team.

AFC AND NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

(January 22): To apply for credentials to the AFC and NFC Championship Games, go to www.NFLmedia.com and click on the NFL Event Credentialing link, which will take you to the online registration form. The deadline to apply is Tuesday, January 10, 2006. Credentials can be picked up at the media headquarters hotels in the host cities. The hotels that will serve as media headquarters for the AFC and NFC Championship Games will be announced on www.NFLmedia.com in early January. NO CREDENTIALS WILL BE MAILED. Credentials will be issued at the media headquarters beginning at noon (game-site time) on Friday, January 20. Each media member must present a government-issued photo identification (passport, driver's license, etc.) at credential pickup. Those credentials not picked up at the media headquarters will be available at Press Will Call the day of the game and will require presentation of government-issued photo identification. If you have any questions, please call Steve Alic (212/450-2066) for the AFC game or Michael Signora (212/450-2076) for the NFC game.

SUPER BOWL XL

(Sunday, February 5, 2006)
The NFL is no longer accepting applications for Super Bowl XL credentials. The only requests that will be considered are those from media organizations within the metropolitan areas of the AFC and NFC champion teams competing in Super Bowl XL, Sunday, February 5, 2006 at Ford Field in Detroit, Michigan. All other space has been assigned. Organizations wishing to cancel previous accreditation are asked to contact Leslie Hammond at the NFL office (212/450-2000) as soon as possible.
