NFL TV HAS NEW LOOK IN '07

The 2007 season will see a lot of new faces in new places on the NFL TV scene. Former Eagles quarterback RON JAWORSKI will now be an analyst on ESPN's Monday Night Football. New York Giants all-time leading rusher TIKI BARBER will be on Football Night in America on NBC, as will KEITH OLBERMANN. Steelers coaching legend BILL COWHER will join CBS' NFL Today, and EMMITT SMITH, BILL PARCELLS and KEYSHAWN JOHNSON are now with ESPN.

Those are just some of the changes on NFL TV '07.

FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING RETURNS

The highly successful "flexible scheduling" format which debuted in the NFL in 2006, will again be utilized this year.

In Weeks 11-17, the schedule lists the games tentatively set for Sunday night on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game will be moved to an afternoon start time. Flexible scheduling will not be applied to games airing on Thursday, Saturday or Monday nights.

A flexible scheduling move will be announced at least 12 days before the game. For Week 17, the change may be announced six days before the game. Flexible scheduling will ensure quality matchups on Sunday night in those weeks and give "surprise" teams a chance to play their way onto primetime.

Following is a complete guide to the NFL television picture this year:

CBS' NFL TODAY will feature the television debut of former Steelers head coach BILL COWHER. He brings 15 years of head-coaching experience to the studio team that includes host JAMES BROWN and analysts BOOMER ESIASON, DAN MARINO, and SHANNON SHARPE.
