

FAMOUS LOVE THE NFL!

Rap and R&B artist FERGIE has performed on countless stages around the world, but no performance compares to her experience singing on the sports world's greatest stage at Super Bowl XXXIX and at a concert at last season's Super Bowl XLI.

"It's beautiful," Fergie says about performing at the Super Bowl. "This is an American tradition. It's a little girl's dream."

Fergie's parents were both schoolteachers, and her father, PATRICK FERGUSON, was a football coach at the junior high school level in her hometown of Whittier, California.

"I've always been a big football fan, starting because of my dad's involvement in the sport," says Fergie. "I'm a big fan of the NFL."

Fergie is only one of many notable NFL fans. Following is a list of 25 of them:
