COLTS SEEK FIRST 7-0 START IN CLUB HISTORY; DIVISION-LEADING COWBOYS & SEAHAWKS CLASH

Indy is on the verge of history.

With a win this week against Houston, the Indianapolis Colts would be 7-0, a season's start they have never accomplished in their 52-year history.

That goes all the way back to their first year, 1953, when people like ART DONOVAN, GINO MARCHETTI and DON SHULA first wore the horseshoe. At 6-0, the Colts have matched their 1958 start when they won the NFL championship in the famous sudden-death overtime game against the New York Giants in "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

Indy is still perfect because it came back from a 17-0 first-quarter deficit Monday night against St. Louis. "A win like this builds character," says Colts defensive tackle COREY SIMON. "It will carry us a long way down the road this season."

That road to Super Bowl XL keeps winding in Week 7:

DALLAS COWBOYS (4-2) at SEATTLE SEAHAWKS (4-2)

STORYLINE: Stop Shaun!

Or is it, "Stop Drew"? This is a game between NFC division leaders packed with sub-plots.

A pivotal one for the Cowboys can be stated in two words: SHAUN ALEXANDER. The Seattle RB comes off a monster game Sunday night in which he ran for 141 yards against Houston with four rush TDs to tie his September 25 TD output against Arizona -- the highest point-production games (24) in the NFL this year. And for only the third time in Seahawks history, a second back added another 100 (MAURICE MORRIS, 104). "We are finally getting to where it should be," says Alexander. "We handle our business."

Can Alexander be corralled? The Cowboys have surrendered only 110 rushing yards in their consecutive wins over division rivals Philadelphia and New York. Dallas' 3-4 defense -- No. 8 in the league against the rush -- utilizes the speed of rookie LB DE MARCUS WARE as a stand-up DE rather as a down lineman as he was at Troy State. Also key can be S ROY WILLIAMS coming up to aid the front seven in his all-out way. The NFL All-Star had six tackles, a defended-pass, forced fumble and fumble recovery against the Giants on Sunday.

The Cowboys' leader is QB DREW BLEDSOE -- accumulating a lot of early-season consideration for Comeback Player of the Year -- who will be performing in front of the home-folk (born in Ellensburg, Washington/Washington State). Bledsoe, in his 13th year and first in Dallas, causes problems for defenses because he distributes the ball all over. The Cowboys are the only team with three receivers ranked in the NFC top 15 in catches -- WRs TERRY GLENN and KEYSHAWN JOHNSON, and TE JASON WITTEN.

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS (3-3) at PHILADELPHIA EAGLES (3-2)

STORYLINE: Watch out, San Diego. Philly comes off a bye!

And add to that the Eagles' estimable record after a loss (33-10 to Dallas in Week 5), and the Chargers indeed may have hold of an angry eagle.

Philadelphia enters the game with a flawless record the week after a bye under coach ANDY REID (6-0 since 1999). And

NFL FACTOID

THREE-WAY TOMLINSON: Only 11 times before in the 86-year history of the NFL has a player accomplished in a game what San Diego Chargers running back LA DAINIAN TOMLINSON did last Sunday -- run for, catch and throw a touchdown. Since the Super Bowl era (1966), four players performed the feat before Tomlinson: DAN REEVES (1967), HARMON WAGES (1969), WALTER PAYTON (1979) and DAVID PATTEN (2001).

since 2000, Philly has compiled a 17-3 (.850) record in games after a loss, the best such mark in the league in that time.

So the Chargers should be wary. On top of the post-bye, post-loss juggernaut, they confront the NFL's No. 1 passing game (307.2 yards) led by QB DONOVAN MC NABB and WR TERRELL OWENS.

Of course, the Eagles are wise to be just as wary. For one main reason: LA DAINIAN TOMLINSON. The fleet RB was a whirlwind last Sunday, rushing 31 times for 140 yards and catching two passes for 39 (see "NFL Factoid" above). He can break his tie (18) with LENNY MOORE (1963-65) of most consecutive games with a TD.

"L.T. is fast," says new Eagles LB ZEKE MORENO, formerly of the Chargers. "It takes 11 players to stop him. If 11 players are on the same page, then it's cool. But it's going to be very hard."

PITTSBURGH STEELERS (3-2) at CINCINNATI BENGALS (5-1)

STORYLINE: *The tables are switched, Steelers.

Usually it's Pittsburgh with the better record when these division rivals meet. In fact, this is the first time in 15 years that both teams will play each other with winning records (both 5-4 on November 18, 1990). Pittsburgh comes into the game with nine consecutive road wins, the best such mark in the league.

With Steelers QB BEN ROETHLISBERGER due back after a bruised knee, the game will feature the NFL's highest-rated QBs – Roethlisberger at 123.8 and the Bengals' CARSON PALMER at 113.6. Between them, they have thrown only two interceptions (Palmer). Roethlisberger and Palmer will look for their main wideouts. Pitt's HINES WARD (probably returning from injury) is considered by some coaches to be the best-blocking receiver in the NFL and ties for the second-most AFC TDs (4). Cincy's CHAD JOHNSON tops the AFC in receiving yards (561) and touchdowns (5, tie).

Cincy leads the NFL in perhaps the most important stat of all – takeaways (21). Fourteen of those are a league-leading interception total. So if the Bengals' pass defense inhibits Roethlisberger, the Steelers will – surprise! – go to the ground.

"Their offensive line is why they're there," says Bengals LB BRIAN SIMMONS. "Whoever they put back there, they're going to try to pound him. Whether Ben is quarterbacking or TERRY BRADSHAW, they're going to run the ball."

DENVER BRONCOS (5-1) at NEW YORK GIANTS (3-2)

STORYLINE: *Tiki or Tatum?

Which running back will dominate? After his 100-yard games in each of the past two weeks, the Broncos' TATUM BELL has almost the same amount of yards (395) as the Giants' TIKI BARBER (397) but with 30 fewer carries (58 to 88).

Bell is not big on the Broncos' "RB by Committee" attack (MIKE ANDERSON and former Giant RON DAYNE join him). "I want to be the guy to carry the load and get those 25-30 carries," says Bell.

Barber is one of the most consistent backs in the league, not going below 60 yards in any of the team's five games.

If the clubs take to the air, they have ample support there. Giants QB ELI MANNING has formed a productive bond with newcomer PLAXICO BURRESS, who is ranked eighth in the NFC in receptions (30). Broncos QB JAKE PLUMMER has not thrown an interception in 17 quarters. And he is starting to throw the long ball. After only one pass of 30 or more yards this season, Plummer completed last Sunday a 72-yarder to his main receiver ROD SMITH (No. 4 in the AFC in catches with 34) and a 55-yarder to ASHLEY LELIE. Both tosses set up touchdowns.

NEW YORK JETS (2-4) at ATLANTA FALCONS (4-2) (Monday night, ABC, 9:00 PM ET)

STORYLINE: *The DVDs vs. Vilma and the gang.

The Falcons – in their second of three MNF home games this season (only the third time this has happened – Miami: 1995, 1997) – trot out their "DVD" package that has produced the league's No. 1 rushing attack. The "DVD" tandem is RB WARRICK DUNN, QB MICHAEL VICK, and RB T.J. DUCKETT (ankle sprain). Together they comprise the only team trio ranked in the NFC's top 20 in rushing.

Keying on that onslaught will be a Jets' defense led by LB JONATHAN VILMA, last year's NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, who leads the team in tackles with 75. The Jets' "D" has allowed the AFC's fourth-fewest yards per play (4.54).

Vinny tidbit: Monday night will mark five years and one day ago (10/23/00) that Jets QB VINNY TESTAVERDE directed the team to 30 fourth-quarter points in a 40-37 overtime victory over Miami in a game voted "The Greatest MNF Game Ever Played."
