COLTS GO FOR 10-0 IN "BIG D"; DENVER "D" TRIES TO HALT TOMLINSON IN SUNDAY NIGHT BATTLE FOR FIRST

"It will be fun this week. This is why you play the game."

That's Dallas Cowboys quarterback TONY ROMO talking about his matchup this Sunday with PEYTON MANNING and the unbeaten Indianapolis Colts.

But Tony could be talking about any of Week 11's games, especially coming off the excitement of last week. There were big comeback wins (21 points by San Diego and 19 by Baltimore)...two 900-yard games (New Orleans-Pittsburgh and San Diego-Cincinnati)...the highest-scoring game of the year (90 points, San Diego-Cincinnati)...10 70-yard plays, the most in a weekend since 2001 (Week 9)...and a 108-yard TD runback that tied for the longest play in NFL history by -- who else? -- one of the Chicago Bears (DEVIN HESTER, after teammate NATHAN VASHER did it last year).

What a way to start the season's second half! Oh, and the Colts won again.

Indianapolis, with its victory over Buffalo, became the first NFL team to start consecutive seasons at 9-0. This week, the Colts seek to become the 18th club ever to start 10-0. A history of undefeated starts, ending with the 1972 Miami Dolphins' 14-0 perfect season:

STARTLING STARTS

Season Start	Number of Teams	Season Start	Number of Teams
9-0	21	12-0	5
10-0	18	13-0	4
11-0	11	14-0	1

With Thanksgiving looming, "There is so much football left to go," says Bears head coach LOVIE SMITH. The "going" starts this week:

ATLANTA FALCONS (5-4) at BALTIMORE RAVENS (7-2)

STORYLINE: 83 and 86 mean 6.

As much as QBs MICHAEL VICK of Atlanta and STEVE MC NAIR of Baltimore (this will be their first meeting) are known for their long-ball power, their most productive targets are their tight ends. The Falcons' ALGE CRUMPLER (No. 83) and Ravens' TODD HEAP (No. 86) lead their clubs in TD receptions with six and five, respectively.

Baltimore, which has won three in a row since head coach BRIAN BILLICK took over the play-calling duties, will be wary about the reappearance of the "old" Falcons, who averaged almost 30 points per game in going 3-1 in October. Atlanta has lost its last two, but still boasts the league's No. 1 rushing offense of almost 200 yards per game (198.9).

You're not welcome: Ravens have won nine of their 12 home games since last season.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (6-3) at GREEN BAY PACKERS (4-5)

STORYLINE: Brady and Brett.

Two of the best quarterbacks, perhaps ever -- New England's TOM BRADY and Green Bay's BRETT FAVRE -- meet for the second time in their multi-Super Bowl, multi-MVP careers, and the first in Green Bay. On October 13, 2002, Favre

NFL FACTOID

TIGHT GAMES: Twelve of the 15 NFL games last Sunday were decided by eight points or less, tying Sunday of Week 17 in 2004 for the most such games on a single day since the league initiated the two-point conversion in 1994.

threw three TD passes to Brady's one in leading the Pack to a 28-10 victory over the Super Bowl XXXVI champions.

Now it's halfway through '06 and the Patriots have – shockingly – lost two in a row (they have won six straight on the road), and the Packers have won three of their last four after a 1-4 start.

Key to the game could be the ability of the Pats' banged-up secondary to negate speedy WR DONALD DRIVER, who comes off a career-high 191-yard game.

CHICAGO BEARS (8-1) at NEW YORK JETS (5-4)

STORYLINE: It's almost a home game for both teams!

The Bears play at the Meadowlands for the second week in a row (the first team to do so since Washington in 1999). They'd like the same type of result as last Sunday night, a 38-20 win over the Giants featuring Devin Hester's incredible 108-yard runback.

The Jets know they will be facing the NFL's top-rated defense, and No. 1 pass defense. They will try to replicate their success last week against New England by controlling the ball on long drives. QB CHAD PENNINGTON led 16- and 15-play scoring drives that gave New York a cushion against a late Patriots comeback bid.

Chicago has the largest point differential in the NFL – a plus-152 margin between points scored (272) and allowed (120).

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (9-0) at DALLAS COWBOYS (5-4)
---

STORYLINE: Peyton debuts in Dallas!

He is a born-and-bred Southerner, but Sunday will be Colts QB PEYTON MANNING's first appearance in Texas Stadium.

The league's top-rated QB will face a highly proficient team on both offense and defense. The Cowboys are the lone NFL club with top-10 rankings in the overall/rushing/passing categories on both offense and defense.

And, as Tony Romo (ranked No. 2 in the league to Manning in passer rating, 101.2 to 104.5) says, this might be fun. The matchup features some of the most explosive receivers in the game – TERRELL OWENS and TERRY GLENN (quad) of Dallas and MARVIN HARRISON and REGGIE WAYNE of Indianapolis.

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS (7-2) at DENVER BRONCOS (7-2) (Sunday, NBC, 8:15 PM ET)

STORYLINE: Battle for first, with LT thrown in.

"We know what's at stake," says Chargers RB LA DAINIAN TOMLINSON. "First place."

Indeed it is, with the teams tied for the AFC West lead with 7-2 records. San Diego has not won in Denver since 1999. In fact, the Broncos are 5-1 over the Chargers the past three seasons.

But Denver will have to contend with a hotter-than-hot Tomlinson. Now the league's top touchdown scorer with 18, he has registered 15 TDs in the last five games, topping the all-time mark of JIM BROWN over such a span (14 in 1958).

The Broncos have been able to somewhat rein in Tomlinson at home over the years. He has averaged 52.8 yards in five games in Denver, against 115.2 yards in five games in San Diego. Plus, Denver has their own TD-maker in WR JAVON WALKER, with five scoring catches in his past three games.

NEW YORK GIANTS (6-3) at JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-4) (Monday, ESPN, 8:30 PM ET)

STORYLINE: Welcome back, Tom!

Giants head coach TOM COUGHLIN will direct his first game in Jacksonville since he led the then-expansion Jaguars from 1995-2002, taking them to two AFC Championship Games in that time. "It's a business trip," says Coughlin.

That it is. Both teams want to get back to the business of winning after Week 10 losses. The Giants will face a Jaguars team – 7-2 all-time on MNF – that has outscored opponents 121-37 in five home games, registering 13 touchdowns while allowing four. The Giants have not suffered back-to-back losses since 2004.

Two matchups will deserve extra attention. The first is a battle of the veteran RBs. The Jaguars' nine-year vet FRED TAYLOR comes off his sixth game of at least 100 yards from scrimmage. Giants 10-year veteran TIKI BARBER leads the NFL in rushing (971 yards) and is No. 2 in scrimmage yards (1,269).

The other great matchup will be between Giants QB ELI MANNING and Jags CB RASHEAN MATHIS, who leads the league in interceptions (6), with seven in his last 10 games dating back to last season.
