THREE WEEKS TO GO! FIVE DIVISION TITLES UP FOR GRABS, WILD CARD RACE TIGHT; ALL FOUR NATIONAL TV GAMES
 HOLD PLAYOFF IMPLICATIONS

"It's a crazy year. Anything's possible."

You got that right, coach!

And there are 24 other NFL head coaches who will readily agree with Philadelphia's ANDY REID. The 25 make up the total number of teams still in Super Bowl contention -- tied for the second most ever in a 16-game schedule with three weeks to go in the season.

Sure there are the Chicagos and San Diegos who basically have been steady throughout the season. But then there are the Cincinnati's (4-5 at one point this season) and Philadelphia's (5-6 in late November) who have uprighted their seasons and are taking serious aim at the postseason.

As the NFL heads into Week 15, Chicago and San Diego are the lone division champs. No other playoff spots have been claimed. Five division titles can be won this week.

The jockeying for each conference's Wild Card spots? It's as tight as linemen on a kneel-down. In the AFC, two clubs are 8-5 and three 7-6. In the NFC, three teams are at 7-6. And then there are the teams bunched right below that level.

"There is still a ton to play for," says San Diego quarterback PHILIP RIVERS, who has led the Chargers to the AFC West title in his first year as a starter. "You'll see a hungry team out there the next few weeks. We're playing for a lot."

Philip speaks for every club still in the race. Three weeks to go. Little margin for error. Every game critical. In fact, 13 of this weekend's 16 games have tiebreaker implications, including Week 15's four nationally televised matchups (with their tiebreaker scenarios in the division sections below):

- THURSDAY: SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS (5-8) at SEATTLE SEAHAWKS (8-5) (NFL Network, 8:00 PM ET) – Niners can sweep their first season series against Seattle since they did so in the first year of realignment in 2002. San Francisco RB FRANK GORE – his 5.6 yards per carry average is the most for a 49ers leading rusher since JOE "THE JET" PERRY's 6.1 in 1958 – rushed for a club-record 212 yards in the teams' first meeting on November 19, a 20-14 San Francisco win. It will be tough for the Niners, though. The Seahawks can take the division with a victory, they have won 15 of their past 16 at Qwest Field, and RB SHAUN ALEXANDER has rushed for 100 yards in three of his past four games against San Francisco.
- SATURDAY: DALLAS COWBOYS (8-5) at ATLANTA FALCONS (7-6) (NFL Network, 8:00 PM ET) – Is Michael & Company back? Was Sunday night an aberration? This Saturday night may answer those questions. The MICHAEL VICK-led Falcons have won two in a row after losing four straight to vault back into the Wild Card

NFL FACTOID

L.A. STARS: There may not be an NFL team in Los Angeles, but that did not stop several L.A. products from contributing mightily to their team's triumphs this past week.

Just look around the league in Week 14: Jacksonville rookie RB MAURICE JONES-DREW (UCLA) ran for an NFL career high 166 yards and two TDs (303 all-purpose yards); New Orleans rookie RB REGGIE BUSH (USC) posted 162 scrimmage yards, including 125 receiving with a TD; Arizona rookie QB MATT LEINART (USC) led the Cardinals to their third win in the past four games by tossing two TDs; and Los Angeles product J.P. LOSMAN, QB of the Bills, also took Buffalo to its third victory in the past four with two TDs.

race. The high-flying Cowboys were handed a 42-17 defeat Sunday night by New Orleans. Now their sixth-rated NFL rush defense faces the league's top ground offense, one that may be missing mainstays WARRICK DUNN and rookie JERIOUS NORWOOD. No problem. Falcs fullback JUSTIN GRIFFITH took over with 57 second-half yards and a TD on Sunday. FRED MC CRARY can take Griffith's place.

- SUNDAY: KANSAS CITY CHIEFS (7-6) at SAN DIEGO CHARGERS (11-2) (NBC, 8:15 PM ET) – The top two RBs in the business – as far as rushing yards are concerned – square off. Kansas City's LARRY JOHNSON leads the league in rush yards with 1,432 – a scant five yards in front of San Diego's new NFL TD record-holder (29) LA DAINIAN TOMLINSON (1,427). The Chargers' No. 7 rush defense has surrendered only five 100-yard games since 2004. Johnson has two of them, including 132 this past October 22 in a 30-27 KC win. Two of the NFL's top tight ends square off. KC's TONY GONZALEZ and SD's ANTONIO GATES join Cleveland's KELLEN WINSLOW as the league's only TEs with 60 catches. Says four-year vet Gates of seven-time Pro Bowl selection Gonzalez: "Tony has definitely set a high standard at tight end. He's done it year in and year out."
- MONDAY: CINCINNATI BENGALS (8-5) at INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (10-3) (ESPN, 8:30 PM ET) – Colts, losers of three of their last four, will confront a hot Bengals team. Cincy has won its past four, turning around a 4-5 season. "We're peaking at the right time," says always-confident Bengals WR CHAD JOHNSON. The last time these teams met – in November 2005 – they piled up the second most points (62) ever in a first half (Jets-Bucs, 70 in 1985). Cincy faces an angry Colts who will come out with all their firepower. Their 32nd-ranked rush defense confronts bulldozer RB RUDI JOHNSON, the league's ninth-leading rusher (1,054) fresh off a 117-yard, two-TD game.

Meanwhile, is there scrambling going on! A rundown of the NFL division races and tiebreaker scenarios:

- AFC EAST: The whole division is in playoff contention!

The New England Patriots (9-4) can win their fourth consecutive division championship this week, which can tie Indianapolis (if they also do so this year) for the longest active such streak. The Pats host Houston on Sunday, then finish the season with two road games. New England lost its first road game of the year last week (in Miami), its first shutout (21-0) since 2003.

"We're 9-4," says Patriots head coach BILL BELICHICK. "There are a lot of teams who would like to have that record. We'll be judged by the body of our work."

The Patriots this Sunday can clinch the AFC East with:

1. NE win + NYJ loss or tie, OR
2. NE tie + NYJ loss.

The New York Jets (7-6), Buffalo Bills (6-7) and Miami Dolphins (6-7) – with the last two on 3-1 streaks -- are still in playoff contention but cannot clinch a berth this week.

- AFC NORTH: The Baltimore Ravens (10-3) have a two-game lead on the streaking Cincinnati Bengals (8-5 and winners of four in a row) and can clinch their first division title since 2003 on Sunday when they host AFC North rival Cleveland.

The Ravens have won six of their past seven, with a good amount of the credit due to their dominating defense. Baltimore has surrendered a league-low 170 points. "You always want to play your best football in December," says Ravens LB BART SCOTT. "They don't hand out too many trophies in the first half of the year."

The Ravens can take the AFC North crown this week with:

1. BAL win + CIN loss or tie, OR
2. BAL tie + CIN loss.

Baltimore can clinch a playoff berth with:

1. BAL win or tie, OR
2. CIN loss or tie + BAL clinches strength of victory tiebreaker over NYJ, OR
3. DEN loss or tie + BAL clinches strength of victory tiebreaker over NYJ, OR
4. NYJ loss or tie + CIN loss or tie, OR
5. NYJ loss or tie + DEN loss or tie, OR
6. NE loss + CIN loss or tie + JAX loss, OR
7. NE loss + DEN loss or tie + JAX loss.

Strength of victory: The season-ending won-lost-tied percentage of all opponents a team has defeated.

Cincinnati and the Pittsburgh Steelers (6-7) are still in playoff contention but cannot clinch a berth this week. Cleveland has been eliminated.

- AFC SOUTH: A two-game separation here also, with one team smarting from last week's meeting with the other.

The Indianapolis Colts (10-3) can win their fourth successive division championship Monday night against Cincinnati. They come off a 44-17 loss to the AFC South second-place Jacksonville Jaguars (8-5), therefore splitting the season series.

"We need a convincing win where we can get our confidence and swagger back," says Colts LB CATO JUNE. A win would give Indianapolis at least a playoff berth and tie head coach TONY DUNGY with TOM LANDRY (1966-73) and CHUCK NOLL (1972-79) for the second-most consecutive playoff berths in history – eight, behind Landry's nine from 1975-83.

The Colts win the division with:

1. JAX loss, OR
2. IND win or tie + JAX tie.

Indianapolis clinches its fifth playoff berth in a row with:

1. IND win or tie, OR
2. DEN loss or tie.

The Jaguars – winners of three of their past four and seeded sixth right now in the AFC – and Tennessee Titans (6-7) are still in playoff contention but cannot clinch a berth this week. Houston has been eliminated.

- AFC WEST: One goal down, another one reachable Sunday night. That's the mission of the San Diego Chargers (11-2), the top-ranked team in the AFC. The Bolts won the division last week, their second crown in three years, and can earn a first-round bye this week.

Coupled with those possibilities is Chargers wunderkind RB LA DAINIAN TOMLINSON possibly breaking another revered NFL record. Last week, Tomlinson established the league mark for season TDs with 29. Sunday night he can surpass an NFL record that has stood for 46 years – most total points scored in a season. Green Bay Packers Pro Football Hall of Fame RB PAUL HORNUNG registered 176 points in 1960. Tomlinson enters Week 15 with 174 points.

With all the Tomlinson fireworks, the Chargers this week can secure a first-round bye with:

1. SD win + IND loss.

The Denver Broncos (7-6) and Kansas City Chiefs (7-6) are still in contention but cannot secure a playoff berth this week. Oakland has been eliminated.

- NFC EAST: This one is tight. And the principals still have at least one division battle on their hands.

The Dallas Cowboys (8-5) sit atop the division, tightly pursued by the New York Giants and Philadelphia Eagles, both one game behind at 7-6. Dallas has one NFC East game left (Week 16 vs. Philadelphia) and the Giants and Eagles each have two division games left.

"We have pressure on us to play well, but we're still in a good position if we take advantage of it," says Cowboys head coach BILL PARCELLS. "If we win out, we win the division."

Dallas can secure a playoff berth Saturday night against Atlanta with:

1. DAL win + MIN loss or tie + NO win or tie, OR
2. DAL win + MIN loss or tie + CAR loss or tie.

The Eagles visit the Giants in a Sunday showdown. New York came back from a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit to defeat Philly 30-24 in Week 2 on a 31-yard TD pass from ELI MANING to PLAXICO BURRESS in overtime. Neither can earn a playoff berth this weekend. Washington has been eliminated.

- NFC NORTH: It's all Chicago here. The 11-2 Bears boast a five-game lead over the Minnesota Vikings (6-7), are the top seed in the NFC with three weeks to go, and have clinched the division and a first-round bye. They will seek homefield advantage Sunday.

"To beat a team like the Bears, you almost have to play perfect," says QB MARC BULGER of the St. Louis Rams, losers to Chicago this past Monday night. The Bears play two of their last three at home.

Chicago can earn homefield advantage in the NFC this week with:

1. CHI win + NO loss or tie, OR
2. CHI tie + NO loss.

Minnesota and the Green Bay Packers (5-8) are still in playoff contention but cannot earn a berth this week. Detroit has been eliminated.

- NFC SOUTH: The Saints are looking like the comeback story of the year.

After Hurricane Katrina last year, playing their home games in Baton Rouge and San Antonio, and a 3-13 record, New Orleans returned home to the Louisiana Superdome this season and has built a 9-4 mark under rookie head coach SEAN PAYTON to now sit atop the NFC South with a lot in the offing this week.

With the Saints' 42-17 win over Dallas last Sunday, "We let a lot of people know what we are all about," says New Orleans QB DREW BREES. They may know even more this week.

The Saints can clinch their first division title since 2000 with:

1. NO win, OR
2. NO tie + ATL loss or tie, OR
3. ATL loss + CAR loss or tie.

New Orleans earns a first-round bye with:

1. NO win + DAL loss + NYG loss or tie + SEA loss.
--

The Saints can clinch a playoff berth with:

1. NO tie, OR
2. MIN loss or tie + PHI loss, OR
3. MIN loss or tie + CAR loss or tie, OR
4. MIN loss or tie + DAL loss + PHI/NYG tie.

The Atlanta Falcons (7-6) and Carolina Panthers (6-7) are in contention but cannot clinch a playoff berth this week. Tampa Bay has been eliminated.

- NFC WEST: The Seahawks are in the driver's seat.

First-place Seattle (8-5) -- the 2005 NFC Champions -- has built a three-game lead with three to go, and can win its third division title in a row this Thursday when it hosts division-rival San Francisco.

"It's a big game," says Seahawks head coach MIKE HOLMGREN. "We have what we want in front of us, and it's Thursday night."

The Seahawks can clinch the NFC West with:

1. SEA win or tie.

The St. Louis Rams (5-8) and San Francisco 49ers (5-8) are still in playoff contention, but cannot clinch a berth this week. Arizona has been eliminated.
